CHARLES G. "LEFTY" DRIESELL

Coaching basketball, teaching and spending endless hours of guidance to young men is a way of life for Charles G. "Lefty" Driesell, the University of Maryland head basketball coach. The dynamic Terp Mentor is regarded most respectfully as one of the most successful and hardest working basketball coaches across the country.

Entering his ninth year as head coach of the Terrapins and eighteenth career season, Driesell ranks as the nation's fourth "winningest" coach in the nation. His 342 victories against 126 losses amounts to a fantastic .731 winning percentage, exceptionally close to the number one mark of .751 percent. The record includes his first head coaching job of nine years at Davidson and eight at Maryland, all winning seasons. Eleven of Driesell's 17 teams have finished the season ranked among the top 20 teams in the nation and two have established NCAA records for field goal percentage.

While "Lefty" has been extremely successful in developing winning basketball programs, he has succeeded most dramatically in producing outstanding young men who have graduated and gone on to be prominent in their professions as doctors, attorneys, business men, coaches and other top recognized professions.

No other basketball coach can claim and boast that he counseled, guided, helped and coached 2 Rhodes Scholars. Lefty had the privilege as Danny Carrell of Davidson and Tom McMillen, a Terrapin, both were selected for and studied at Oxford. In his 17 years as a head coach, every basketball player he coached the four years they attended Davidson and Maryland have graduated with their undergraduate degree, with the exception of two. These two signed lucrative professional contracts but are returning to the University's summer school sessions and they too will earn their degree. That will be 100%.

Unlike many of the leading coaches in the nation "Lefty" has built his program from the bottom up at both of the schools where he has developed winning teams. He took over a dormant program at Davidson in 1960 and developed a program that had the nation's third ranked team when he left to accept the challenge at College Park. The Terrapins were also in the doldrums suffering through three consecutive losing seasons. During 46 years of competition Maryland had achieved only two 20-victory seasons and the last of those came in 1958. The Terrapins now boast five consecutive 20-victory seasons.

"Lefty" has always been a winner. While in grammar school, Granby, he was a manager for the high school athletic teams and became the youngest student ever to receive a varsity letter when he was awarded one in the fourth grade. He has always been associated with winners. As a player even his baseball team was runner-up for the Virginia state championship in 1947.

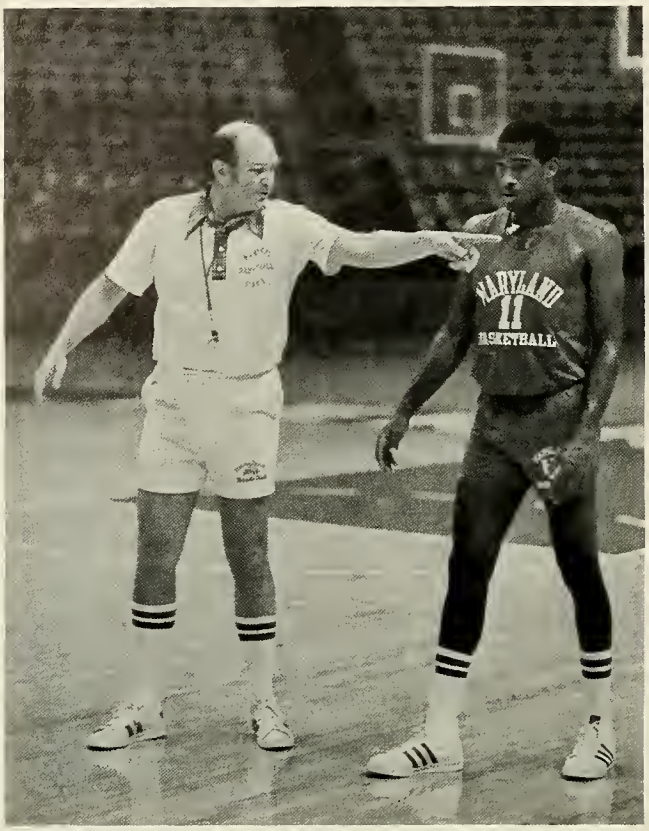
While at Duke University he was a Dean's List student and received his B.A. in Education. He later received his Master's in Education from William & Mary College where he was a member of Kappa Delta Pi Honorary Fraternity.

Lefty started his coaching career as a Junior Varsity Coach at Granby High in Norfolk, his hometown, and continued on to become the best in his profession in the history of the state, with 59 consecutive wins at nearby Newport News High. His ability to teach fundamentals became evident immediately for where is there a better test than developing junior varsity talent. His first Junior Varsity team won 18 of 22 games and he then continued with the talent he had helped develop to win 15 of 20 with the varsity team at Granby. After moving to Newport News High for two years he left with not only a 57 game winning streak behind him but a state championship and 64 wins in only 70 games.

Thus in over 20 years as a coach he has won 438 games against only 140 losses and only one of the 20 teams ever had a losing season, that his first year at Davidson.

"Lefty" is known and recognized by basketball fans and players throughout the nation. He is loved by many and envied by many, but all respect him for what he has accomplished over the years.

Perhaps the best testimonial to "Lefty's" coaching ability is demonstrated by his peers. He is one of the most sought after lectures in the nation, speaking at Basketball Clinics from coast to coast. "Lefty" coaches throughout the year, working with his athletes at Maryland during the school year and "coaching the coaches" during the summer and early fall. While many coaches are asked to concentrate on a specific phase of their coaching philosophy "Lefty" is asked for much more. One major clinic he conducts is, "Maryland's man-to-man attack and defensive systems and drills." With the demands for his appearances he held his own camp for only two weeks this past summer for the second year in a row.



While "Lefty" has been extremely successful in developing winning teams, even more importantly he ranks as the most successful in producing outstanding individuals. Young men who have gone on to excel in their future endeavors.

There are numerous coaches, attorneys, doctors and other outstanding professional men who benefitted from their association with "Lefty". Len Elmore became an instant millionaire upon graduation from Maryland and when Moses Malone indicated his intentions to join the professional ranks "Lefty" made sure the youngster obtained the security from the professionals he deserved.

Assistant Coaches as well as players benefit from their association with "Lefty" as he has contributed more than his share of assistant to head coaching positions throughout the nation. Davidson, Virginia, Cincinnati, Point Park, South Carolina State, and William & Mary have all benefitted from hiring Driesell proteges.

While his life revolves around the basketball court the Terp Mentor contributes greatly to the University community, the athletes and his associates through his active participation in the academic life of the University, the charitable organizations of the community, and the church. He is a father away from home for his athletes. Seldom is an awards ceremony held anywhere in the Washington Metropolitan area on any level of competition that a Maryland coach, player, or both is not present.

Over the years "Lefty" has gained a reputation as a superior recruiter and he has earned the reputation. Such a reputation does not come easy. First he recruits the top basketball players in the nation. Second he produces the finest college graduates in the nation. Such a reputation and continued recruiting successes could not be achieved without dedication to the youngsters and their future as well as their basketball talents. Those that join the Maryland program know that they will benefit from excellent coaching, but more importantly know they will leave the University with a bright future ahead of them and prepared for that future. They know their basketball talents will have been developed to their utmost and that they have been a part of something special.

The Maryland players are known and respected by the Media throughout the nation for their outstanding post-game interviews. Their outstanding ability to converse with the media in an intelligent and relaxed manner is another of the attributes they gain from "Lefty".

The Terp coach is always in close touch with his athletes, their professors and family. He often knows where they need help before they realize it themselves. The athletes are always welcome and often found in his home along with assistant coaches and their wives.

When "Lefty" took over the dormant program at Davidson College his coaching ability became immediately evident as with the talent on hand he recorded the best record Davidson Basketball had achieved in five years and in only his second year led the Wildcats to their first winning season in 13 years. In only his third season Davidson had recorded its first 20-victory season in 54 years of competition and had achieved national prominence.

After leading Davidson to six 20-victory seasons (6 teams in top 20) and a 27-3 record in 1969 "Lefty" accepted the challenge of another building program and moved on to College Park, Maryland.

Again "Lefty", with the talent on hand, transformed a loser into a winner. He recorded a 13-13 season in his first year and followed with a 14-12 and then in only his third season led the Terps to a 27-5 record and a National Invitational Tournament Championship. He followed that with a 23-7 record and a berth in the NCAA Eastern Regional Finals and then a 23-5 season with third or fourth place national ranking depending on which poll or publication you follow.

A berth in the NCAA Midwest Regional Finals followed with a 24-5 record, a fifth place ranking and a All-Time NCAA record for field goal accuracy, hitting .547 percent from the field. It was his second NCAA field goal accuracy record with the first coming at Davidson. His 1975-76 team gave him five consecutive 20-victory seasons at Maryland with a 22-6 record and ranked eleventh in the nation.

Statistics verify the fact that "Lefty" is a superior coach. Rebounding, free throw shooting, superior field goal percentages, a fast break offense, and man-to-man defense are all areas of the game that "Lefty" stresses along with conditioning. His teams have excelled in each phase.

No NCAA team has ever been more proficient at shooting, his teams always rank among the nations leaders in scoring, rebounding, free throw shooting and winning. He has never had a team out-rebounded, despite the lack of height on some teams. He has often deviated from his basic philosophy to adjust to the talent on hand and this is the toughest job any coach has.

Eight of his teams have topped the 50 percent mark in field goal percentage. Nine of his teams have scored over 80 points a game including the Maryland record of 89.9 in 1974-75. Eleven of his teams have won over 20 games in a season.

"Lefty" stresses the man-to-man defense, feeling that in order to be a well rounded basketball player, in order for a team to win a national championship and in order for a team to utilize all of its natural talent it is necessary to play the game man-to-man.

Basketball, especially in the Washington area, has benefitted from the hard work, dedication to the game and the success of Driesell as everyone strives to keep up with the Terp Mentor.

He leaves nothing to chance, studying film hours at a time and is never caught without a projector at home or away. He supervises every phase of the program from the equipment to ticket sales and the athlete's meals in addition to keeping close check on the classroom work.

All of this has contributed to "Lefty" winning 341 basketball games in just 17 years at a Division One school and 438 games in over 20 years as a head coach, at all levels.

He has won 165 games in just eight years at Maryland while prior to his arrival it took the Terps 12 years to win 145.

Even when "Lefty" is taking one of his short vacations he is where the action is. On July 12 of 1973 while surf fishing at Bethany Beach, Delaware around midnight "Lefty" was credited with helping save the lives of at least 10 children and several adults from burning buildings in a townhouse complex near the beach. As a result of this "Lefty" was honored with the NCAA Award of Valor, becoming the first coach to receive the award.

Lefty, his attractive wife Joyce and their children Patty, Pam, Carolyn and Charles are members of the Colesville Presbyterian Church and when traveling "Lefty" may be found every Sunday at the nearest church to the motel where he is staying. Many of the members of the team accompany him to services on the road. "Lefty" was born on Christmas day 1931.

He is a member of the Branch Rickey Associated Fellowship of Christian Athletes, a member of Beta Gamma Sigma Honorary at Maryland and is listed in Marquis' Who's Who in the South and the Directory of International Biography.

THE DRIESELL ERA AT MARYLAND

When Lefty Driesell took over the basketball program at the University of Maryland the Terrapins had suffered through two consecutive eight-victory seasons and had won only 145 games in 12 years. The record for the 12 year period was 145-54.

Lefty is entering his ninth season with a 165-61 record and his last five teams have won 22 or more games.

The Terps broke even at 13-13 in his first season and were 14-12 in his second year. Consecutive 20-victory seasons of 27-5, 23-7, 23-5, 24-5 and 22-6 followed.

In addition to establishing records on the court the Terps have broken all attendance records with capacity crowds commonplace at Cole Field House.

Under Driesell's tutelage the Terps have won a National Championship, the National Invitation Tournament, gained the finals of the NCAA Eastern Regionals and the NCAA Midwest Regionals with three consecutive teams ranked among the Nation's top ten.

THE NATION'S TOP BASKETBALL STAFF

Joe Harrington

Wil Jones

When "Lefty" Driesell was named head basketball Coach at the University of Maryland in 1969, his first move in selecting his staff was to call on Terrapin graduate Joe Harrington to be one of his assistant coaches. Now embarking on his ninth year as "Lefty's" top assistant, Harrington has the distinction to be the only Terrapin assistant coach who has been a daily part of seeing the Terp basketball program rise to national prominence.

With these eight years coaching the Terrapins under Driesell, Harrington has been the most important and vitally integral part of the Maryland basketball scene. As one of the nation's top assistant coaches, "Lefty" says, "with his experience in all phases of the Maryland program, I believe he has an excellent future in the coaching profession. I just hope I can keep him here with me at Maryland for a long time."

Harrington spends endless hours on the road scouting and recruiting. Through his long association with Driesell, he has gained the reputation as a most effective recruiter of high school talent. This has helped establish the winning tradition for the Terps and a spot in the national limelight.

He received his B.S. Degree in physical education in 1968 following his playing three years on the Terrapin varsity team. He was co-captain of the team his senior year. He was drafted by the NBA Boston Celtics.

Harrington was named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and was recipient of the Marty Cohen Award as outstanding senior scholar-athlete.

A native of Bath, Me., he led his Morse High School team to the state championship in 1962 and 1963 and was selected to the all northeast squads these final two years as a High School All-American selection.

Harrington is married to the former Ann Schopfer, a graduate of the University of Maryland. She then attended and graduated from the University of Maryland Law School. She presently works in the office of the State's Attorney for Montgomery County as an Assistant State's Attorney.

The popular Wil Jones is now in his second year as an assistant to Coach Driesell. Jones joined the staff in the spring of 1976. He was the only coach interviewed for the job sought after by over 50 applicants that included head coaches, junior college coaches, college assistants, and high school coaches.

In selecting Jones, Driesell said, "we were looking for someone with an outstanding coaching record and Jones certainly had this. It is also to our advantage that he was an outstanding player as well. He is quite familiar with our basketball program, having played and coached in the Washington Area. I am very impressed with him as an individual."

Jones, was a former College Division All-America guard at American University, following a brilliant career at Dunbar High School in Washington, D.C. He was an all-metropolitan selection at Dunbar.

At American University, he led the Eagles to the NCAA College division playoffs three consecutive years. His senior year, 1960, Wil was the standout as he led the team to the tournament championship semi-finals.

He was drafted by the NBA Los Angeles Lakers and played for a year with the Washington Tapers of the ABL before becoming an assistant at Wakefield High School in northern Virginia for five years.

From Wakefield High, he went to Robinson High School, Fairfax, Va. as head coach. He became the only Coach in Northern Virginia history to guide his team into the regional playoffs in its first varsity season. His teams at Robinson compiled a 76-19 record.

Along with his Coaching, Jones joins assistants Harrington and Turner with scouting and recruiting assignments. He also serves as academic counselor to the team.

After his first year on Driesell's staff, Jones reflects, "Where else could I be, better than Maryland"?

THE NATION'S TOP BASKETBALL STAFF

Bill Turner is the newest addition to coach Driesell's staff. He was selected to replace Howard White who has gone into private business.

Turner came to the University of Maryland from The Citadel where he served five years as an assistant coach.

"His duties, as those of all of our assistants, will include coaching, recruiting and advising our athletes on their academics, helping them achieve our goal of a degree from Maryland and developing into complete basketball players and men," Driesell said.

A native of Newport News, Va., the 30-year-old Turner holds a bachelor's degree from Old Dominion University (1969) and a master's degree from The Citadel (1973). He lettered all three years in basketball and baseball. He was a high scoring guard in basketball and a standout shortstop in baseball.

Prior to his five years at the Citadel. Turner served two years as an assistant basketball coach at Newport News (Va.) High School and one year as a graduate assistant at Old Dominion.

He married the former Elaine Nalls of Norfolk, Va.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT: John Pavlos served as the Terps' head student manager all four of his undergraduate years. He graduated last May with a B.A. Degree in Speech and Dramatic Arts. While a student, he was a popular Disc Jockey on campus. As Graduate Assistant, Pavlos will be the Academic Coordinator-Adviser for the team. Some other duties will be research work for the basketball program as well as film editor and supervisor of student managers. John is a native of Timonium, Md.

BASKETBALL TRAINER: Jim Weir joined the University of Maryland athletic department training staff, headed by Bill "Spider" Fry, in 1970.

While a hospitalman, 2nd class in the Navy, Weir served as an assistant trainer for three years at the U.S. Naval Academy.

Along with heading the training duties for the basketball team, Weir also handles the lacrosse and track teams. He also assists with all the other sports at Maryland as his schedule allows.

A native of Chelsea, Michigan, Weir attended Oliver College before entering the Navy. He is a graduate of the Navy Physical Therapy Technical School.

He married the former Merlene Rogers, of Grand Rapids, Mich. They have 3 children; Jim, 14; Bobby, 11; and Christina, 7.

JOHN BILNEY

6-8 SOPHOMORE

John Bilney played in 19 games as a freshman and is one of the most improved players on the team. He came to Maryland from Pascack Hills high where he was highly recruited. Although contacted by over 110 schools he made his decision early announcing intentions to attend Maryland in January ending the recruiting drive of many schols at that time. At Pascack High, he averaged 23 points and 22 rebounds a game. His junior year, he set a school record with 470 rebounds, had 66 assists, and 120 blocked shots, averaged 22.4 points a game and 21.2 rebounds. Following his senior season, he was selected on the first All-County and All-Suburban first teams and was a high school honorable mention All-American. He was co-captain of the team his senior year.

Bilney cites his first appearance on the Cole Field House court as a freshman playing for the varsity against Ball State as his most memorable moment in sports. He hit the first shot of his varsity career, hit two of three in that game and scored five points while playing 14 minutes, while also recording his first blocked shot. Although he played in eight of the last ten games of the season he scored only 23 points but pulled in 35 rebounds. Excellent fundamental player, blocking out well and using his strength and eight foot eight and a half inch reach effectively. He worked hard during the summer and it was evident in the early season practice sessions. He pulled in nine rebounds in 12 minutes against Bucknell for his career high and scored five points in the same game. While in high school played in All-Star games in such places as Philadelphia, Seattle, New York, Landover, and Connecticut.

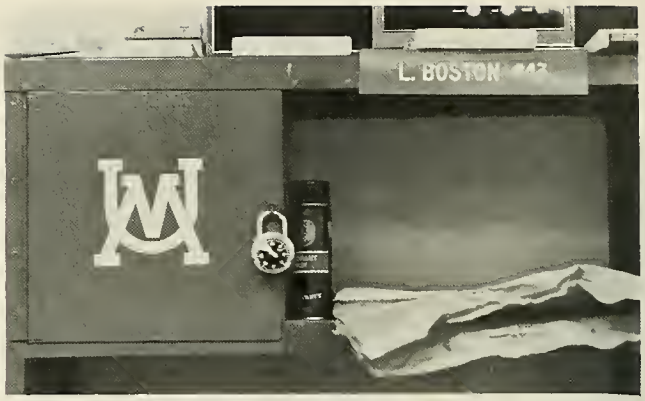
LAWRENCE BOSTON

6-7 SENIOR



Lawrence Boston is one of the leading shooters returning in Collegiate Basketball this year. He ranked sixteenth in field goal percentage with .598 as a junior and only 12 of those ahead of him return. He is the ACC's 2nd top FG percentage leader returning. In two years with the Terps Boston has taken 446 shots from the field and hit 256 for a fine .574 percentage. He was the Terrapins leading rebounder as a sophomore with 249 after moving underneath to replace the injured Larry Gibson. He played in all 28 games as a sophomore, starting 15 of them and started 25 of the 26 games he played in as a junior. As a forward last year he was the teams second leading rebounder with 174, the second leading scorer with a 13 point average and named the team's best defensive player by the coaching staff. His 338 points were the most by a Terrapin last year. Against East Carolina in his first game for the Terps he scored 17 points and pulled in 17 rebounds. He hit his career high with 23 points against North Carolina in Cole Field House on January 22 last year as he hit all 11 of his shots from the field and led the Terps with eight rebounds. He followed that with a six for seven field goal performance against N.C. State five days later. Boston came to Maryland from Vincennes Junior College after just one year at the J.C. powerhouse. Having entered Maryland as a sopohomore he had three years with the Terps. During his senior year at John F. Kennedy High he averaged 25 points, 18 rebounds and seven blocked shots per game and was one of the most sought after big men. While at Vincennes he averaged 12 points a game and 10.7 rebounds leading the team to a 29-5 record. He is a native of Cleveland with his home now in Warrensville, Ohio. He Captained his high school team. He was an All-American in high and the second ranked J.C. player in the nation while at Vincennes. He played for the Ohio All-Stars against the Pennsylvania All-Stars in the 1974 Dapper Dan Classic. One of two seniors on the team, Boston will be team Co-Captain this season.

BILL BRYANT

6-4 SOPHOMORE

William "Bill" Bryant came to Maryland from Archbishop Carroll High in Washington, D.C. where he was considered one of the outstanding players in the nation. Earned a starting job in his second collegiate game as a freshman after playing 24 minutes in the season opener against Notre Dame. Took over as the regular starter in the eighth game of the season and started the next eight games before suffering a wrist injury at Clemson. Also started the last game of the season in the ACC tournament. Had a career high of 23 points against Wake Forest as he played 41 minutes in the overtime loss hitting eight of 13 shots from the field and seven of eight free throws. He hit eight of 10 shots from the field against Xavier. An aggressive player he pulled in five rebounds against Syracuse and Richmond. He was averaging over 10 points a game when injured in the fifteenth game of the season. Scored only 22 points in the last seven games when he saw limited action. Excellent swing man and can play either of three positions. In high schol he was an All-American his junior and senior years as well as first team all-Metro. He played in the Dayton All-American game and the Midwest All-Star game his senior year and was named the "Most Valuable Player" in each game. This Bryant says has been his most memorable moment in sports.

Bryant was selected ACC "Rookie of the Week" for his play two consecutive weeks, January 3 and 10.

At six foot four he has excellent quickness and can go to the boards.

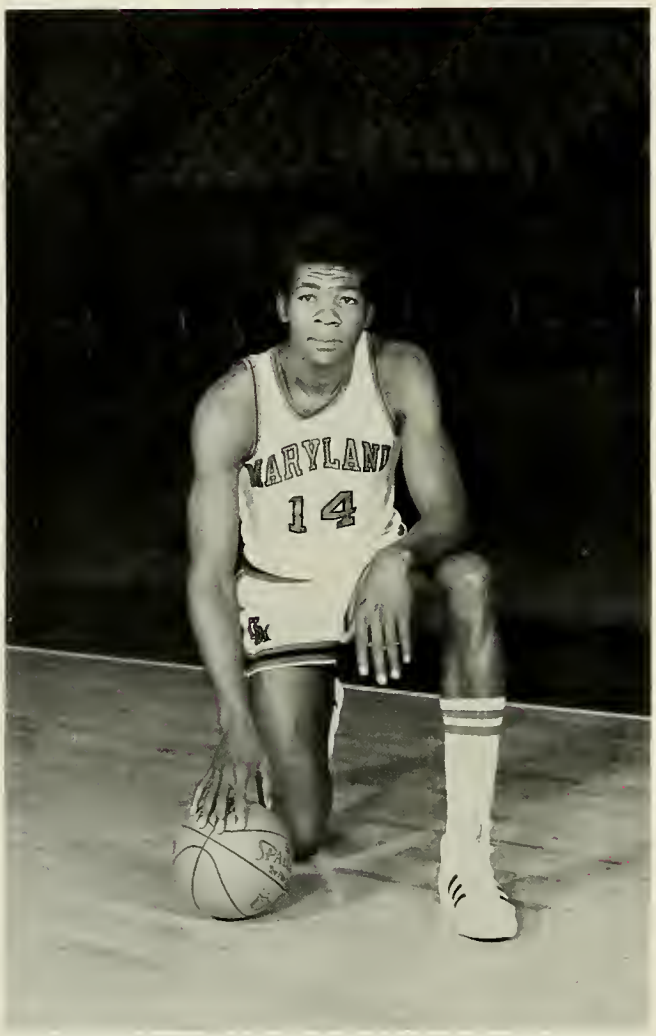
MIKE DAVIS

6-8 SENIOR



Michael "Mike" Davis came to the University from Mercer Community College where he was a Junior College All-American. At 6-foot-8 and 225 pounds he has the potential to dominate the inside game. Over the years no coach has developed more fine centers than "Lefty" Driesell and his work with Davis has begun to pay off. During a three game stretch near the end of the 1976-77 season Davis indicated just what he is capable of accomplishing o nthe basketball court as he scored 16 points with 11 rebounds against North Carolina, came back with 16 points and 11 rebounds against Clemson and followed with 14 points and 21 rebounds against Pittsburgh all in a six day period. He was named ACC Rookie of the Week following his standout performances the week of Feb. 8. The North Carolina game was in Chapel Hill. For the season Davis scored 141 points and pulled in 172 rebounds as he started 23 of the 27 games. He fouled out of nine games but six of them came in the first half of the season and four were against non-conference opponents. While at Mercer Community College he earned an invitation to the Olympic Camp but declined in order to concentrate on his studies at Mercer prior to enrolling at Maryland. Prior to going to Mercer CC, Davis spent a year at Shaw College in Detroit.

Following graduation from Bishop Mose Davis High School, Jacksonville, Fla., Davis enrolled at Shaw College, Detroit. After one year, he entered Mercer CC. His last season at Mercer he averaged 16 points in 25 games; 15 rebounds and 8 blocked shots.

Senior Davis has been named as Co-Captain for the season.

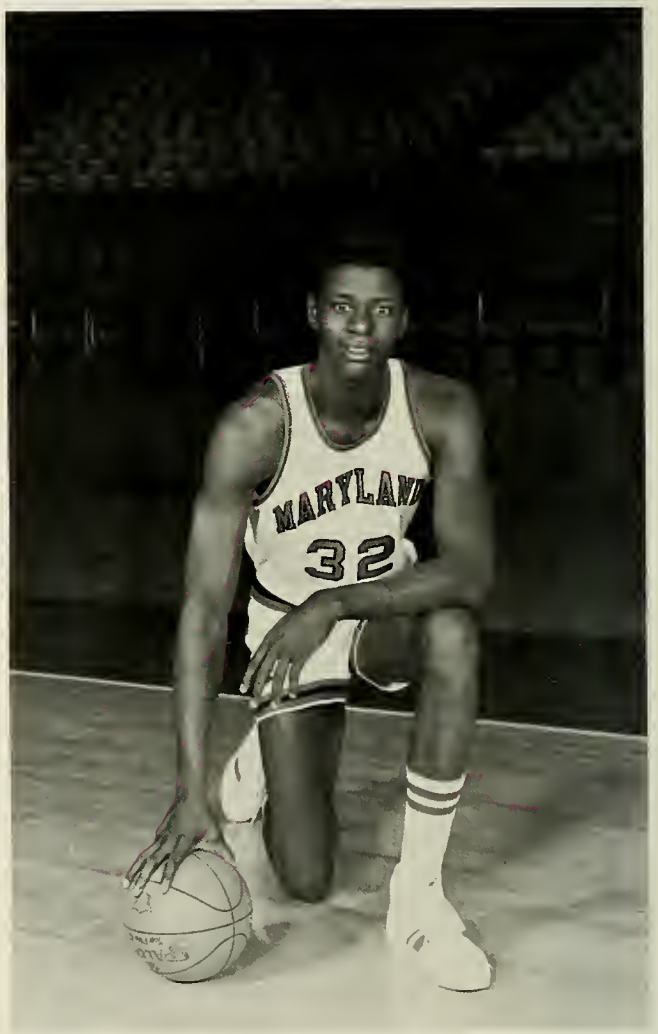
LARRY GIBSON

6-9 JUNIOR



Larry Gibson started his first 16 games as a freshman before suffering a knee injury against North Carolina. He came back last year to start 25 games, lead the Terps in rebounding with 228 and score 10.4 points a game. His 8.4 rebounding average was 5th best in the ACC. He hit his career high with 21 points against Ball State in a game he did not start, coming off the bench to hit seven of 10 from both the field and free throw line while pulling in 12 rebounds. He had a high of 17 rebounds his third game as a Terrapin in his freshman year. He had a team leading 9.8 rebound average as a freshman and again led the team as a sophomore with a 8.4 average per game. Gibson came to Maryland from Dunbar High in Baltimore. During his three years as a starter there he led the team to an impressive 64-4 record with one of those wins coming over Adrian Dantley and DeMatha High. He averaged 18 points and 20 rebounds for his high school career and during his senior year the averaged 24 points while pulling down 20 rebounds a game. While in high school he was accorded several All-American honors and participated in the Dapper Dan Classic. He came to Maryland as the tallest Terp since the Tom McMillen era and immediately established himself as the center. He also has the ability to play forward and with Mike Davis and Lawrence Boston gives the Terps three, strong, experienced big men up front. He scored in double figures in 17 of the 27 games last year and 11 of his 16 games as a freshman. He has also rebounded in double figures in 19 games. One of his best games last year was an 18 point and 12 rebound performance in the 81-80 win against Wake Forest in Greensboro. He hit eight of 12 shots in that game.

ERNEST GRAHAM

6-7 FRESHMAN

"He's like a swing man. He can play guard or forward. He shoots well outside and handles the ball well enough to play guard. His outside shooting and his mobility for a big man are what attracted me," is the way Coach Driesell describes the 6-7 Ernest Graham out of Baltimore's Dunbar High School.

Graham the second student-athlete Driesell signed, led Dunbar to the Maryland Scholastic Association and Baltimore City Public Schools basketball championships his senior year. He joins Dunbar alumnus, center Larry Gibson on the Terrapin squad.

He averaged 22.3 points, 18.5 rebounds and 6 blocked shots a game as Dunbar breezed through the regular season undefeated with 23 straight wins, losing their only game to unbeaten West Philadelphia in a postseason finale at Baltimore's Civic Center.

Graham, a first-team all-state selection with Dunbar, was on a championship team all three years of his varsity career. As a sophomore and junior, he played for Lake Clifton High which won the Maryland Scholastic Association and Baltimore City titles both years. His transfer to Dunbar for his senior year brought both championships to Dunbar. He captained both the Lake Clifton and Dunbar teams, and won the MVP award at Dunbar.

His awards include his all-state selection to the first team; also first team all-Metro; second team, The Joe Namath Prep Sports Team; and was selected as the Most Valuable Player in the Baltimore City Public Schol Turnament.

Points per game	22.3
Rebounds per game	18.5
Assists per game	5.1
Blocked shots per game	5.3
Field Goal Percentage:	58 %
Free Throw Percentage:	87 %

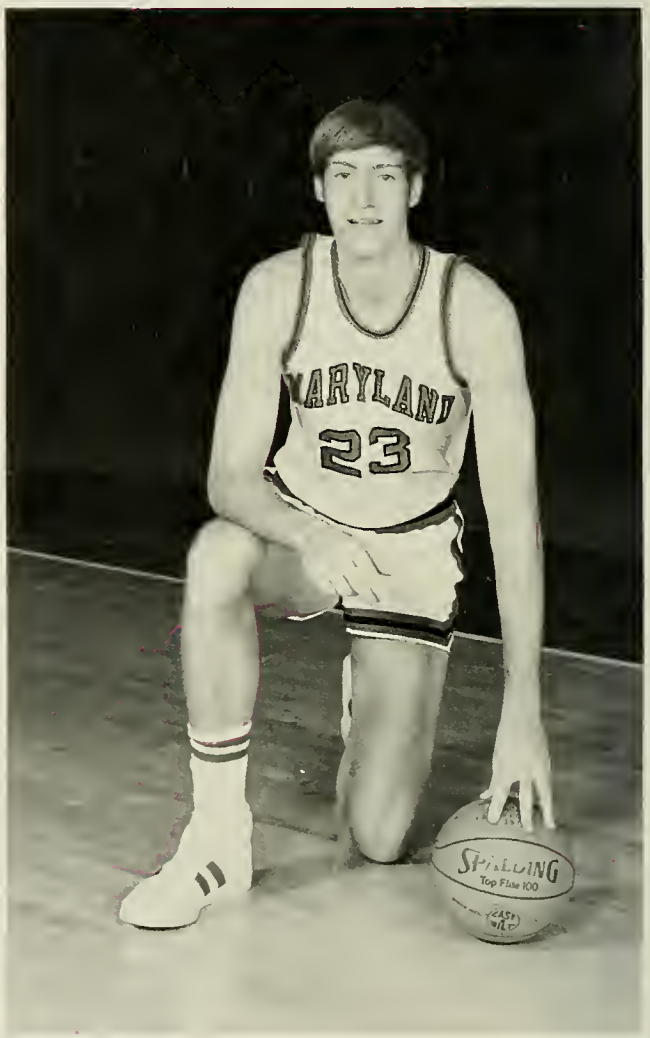
DAVE HENDERSON

6-9 SOPHOMORE



When David Henderson announced his decision to attend Maryland, his coaches and those who were teammates and opposing players said that Henderson's senior year performances climaxed one of the fastest improving careers for a high school basketball player in the state. But the improvement in Henderson his junior and senior years was dramatic. His potential impressed "recruiter" Driesell. The 6-9 center from Roanoke's Patrick Henry High School has shown the same improvement as a freshman last season and continued through the early fall practices in preparation for the 1977-78 season. Driesell has high hopes for the big center these next three years. Henderson averaged 12.1 points and 15 rebounds a game his senior year in helping Patrick Henry gain the semifinals of the State 3A tournament. He was a first team all-league selection to the Virginia high league team. He was a member of the National Honor Society and the High School "Who's Who." Dave is in the School of Engineering.

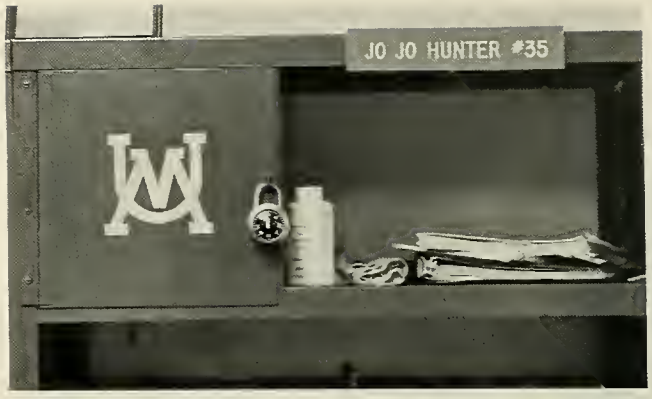
JO JO HUNTER

6-2 SOPHOMORE



Anthony "Jo Jo" Hunter came to Maryland from Mackin High where he was considered one of the top collegiate prospects in the nation, as a high school All-American. The first team Metro All-Star selection played in the Dayton and MidWest All-Star games. He led all scorers in the District of Columbia with a 28 point average. He started 16 of the 27 games as a freshman and moved into the starting lineup as a regular after Bill Bryant was injured at Clemson. In the final 12 games of the season as a starter he averaged 16.9 points a game with 27 against Virginia, 21 against Duke both in Cole Field House and in Durham, 24 against Clemson and 20 in the first Virginia game. He can and has played both guard positions. He hit 11 of 19 shots and all five free throws in his career high 27 points against Virginia in Charlottesville. He hit eight of 12 shots against N.C. State in Greensboro, nine of 13 against Virginia in Cole Field House as he also picked up four assists. He made his first four shots as a collegian and went on to hit 50 percent of his shots while scoring 269 points for a 9.9 average. He was second on the team with 38 assists and also had 24 steals. His high in assists was five against Duke in a 85-72 Terp win. He is an excellent ball handler, good quickness, outstanding outside shooter and can go to the basket as well. With 27 games and 16 starts behind him, 10 of the starts against Atlantic Coast Conference competition, he enters his sophomore season with more experience than most players achieve in their first three years of collegiate competition. He has shown that he will join the ranks of John Lucas and Maurice Howard as one of the finest guards to play in the ACC. He was selected as ACC Rookie of the Week as he starred in the Terps' 81-80 win over Wake Forest at Winston-Salem and Duke at Cole Field House.

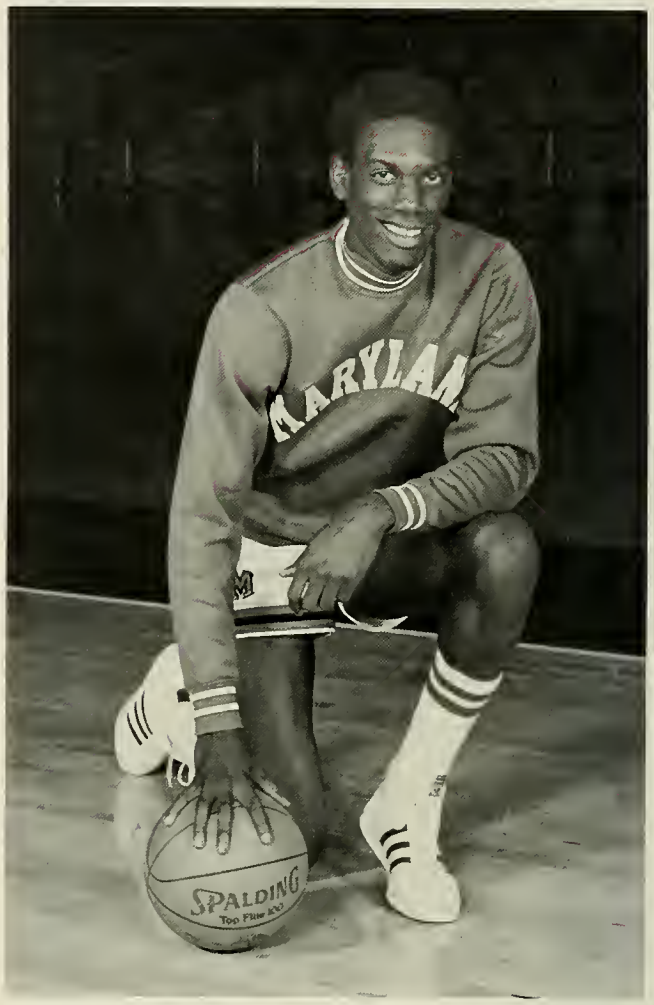
AL KING

6-6 FRESHMAN



Proclaimed by many as the greatest High School basketball player in the country last year, Albert King announced he had chosen to enroll at the University of Maryland at his Fort Hamilton (Brooklyn) High School Awards Banquet June 8.

His decision to become a student-athlete at Maryland ended one of the all-time most intense and frantic recruiting efforts by over 500 colleges across the country.

The three-year high school All-American, on his choice to become a Terrapin, said, "Maryland has a great coach, a good school, a nice team, and a great exposure. Let me stress that I was impressed with Lefty Driesell the man. His players always mention what a good person he is to deal with before they talk about his coaching. I was concerned about who the man is I would play for, what he's like as a person."

The signing of the 6-6 forward, whom Bob Cousy compared to the NBA's Julius (Dr. J) Erving, is the latest in a series of recruiting coups by Driesell. The Terrapin Coach had previously won nationwide recruiting battles for Tom McMillen and Moses Malone. They too were players reputed to be the most highly sought high school seniors in the nation. Maryland won the battle for King who has been tabbed by those who should know as the greatest high school player in the ultra-talent laden New York City since the great Lew Alcindor came out of Power Memorial High ten years ago.

Of his prize catch, America's most celebrated high school basketball player last year, Driesell said, "I think Albert will do a lot of things. I don't want to put a lot of pressure on him; he'll have enough anyway. It's not fair for anyone to expect him to do miracles. I just want him to get a good education, enjoy himself and reach his maximum potential as an athlete. I don't want him to feel he'll have a whole lot of responsibility on his shoulders. The best thing I liked about Albert was his team play. He's very, very unselfish and very team-oriented."

The 17-year old King, (he will be 18 December 17th) in his three fabulous years at Fort Hamilton, established the reputation as unselfish and low-key on the court and the same way off the court according to his Coach, Ken Kern. Although he averaged 38.6 points a game his senior year, scouts and the media lauded him for his passing and unselfish play. He averaged nine assists his senior year.

Despite his astronomical statistics, "He was a team player at Hamilton. Passing may be Albert's greatest asset. He's also an excellent offensive rebounder," Kern said.

King has been all over the world . . . to Russia and all over Europe playing basketball.

Following his high school career, King was voted the "BEST BASKETBALL PLAYER IN NEW YORK CITY" and received the "Iron Horse Award," the most distinguished award given by Madison Square Garden at their annual All-City Sports Awards Night. He was first team all-city selections his junior and senior years and made numerous all-tournament first teams. He also won a series of Most Valuable Player awards in tournaments — too numerous to mention. PARADE Magazine picked King and two other stars as the top high school basketball players in the nation.

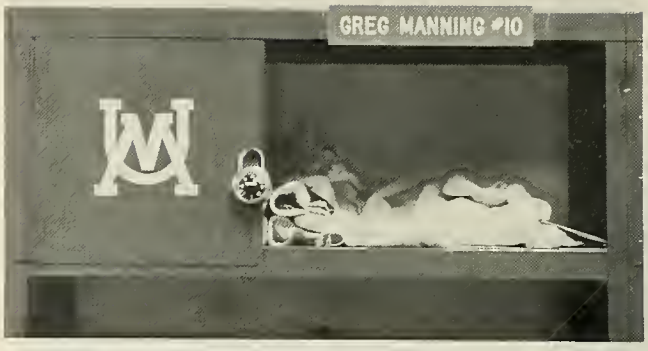
GREG MANNING

6-1 FRESHMAN



At the close of last season, Coach Driesell had listed a point guard to back up Brad Davis as one of his recruiting priorities. The first recruit to sign the national letter of intent was just that point guard, Greg Manning.

The recruiting wisdom of "Lefty" became even more obvious after Manning decided on Maryland as Davis lent himself to the NBA hardship draft and was selected as a first round choice by the Los Angeles Lakers.

Manning was a first team All-State selection by both the Associated Press and United Press International as he led Steelton-Highspire, Penna., High School to a 29-3 record and runner-up in the strong PIAA AAA Championship Tournament. Enroute to the Championship game, he set a tournament and state record of 57 points against Nanticoke High in the state AAA playoff game. Earlier in the year he set a school record of 45 points against York High School.

He scored 1296 points his two varsity years. He hit over 60% of his field goals and 77% from the free throw line. He averaged 8 assists and 9 rebounds a game.

In his two years on the varsity, Steelton-Highspire had a record of 55 wins and 10 losses, with a 21-7 record his junior year.

Manning was named the "MVP" at the DAPPER DAN (Pittsburgh) State East-West game as a member of the West team.

He scored 318 points in the Pennsylvania State Playoff Tournament for a 31.8 average in 10 games. His 45 points scored against York is a Steel-High court record and his 57 against Nanticoke in the tournament is a school record for points scored in a single game. His brilliant tournament games brought him first team honors on the PIAA state tournament team.

At Steelton-Highspire his scoring records:

Sophmore	—JV	22 gs.	542 pts.	24.6 avg.
Junior	—Var.	27 gs.	438 pts.	16.2 avg.
Senior	—Var.	32 gs.	858 pts.	26.8 avg.
Career		59 gs.	1,296 pts.	22.0 avg.

Manning attained the academic honor-roll his senior year. He also was a letterman in football as a quarterback and split end and in baseball as a pitcher.

ERIC SHRADER

5-9 JUNIOR

Shrader, the smallest of all the Terrapins at 5-9, is one of the biggest in his contributions to the team. He is the catalyst of the team during the intense practices providing leadership with all-out efforts on the court. He has exceptional quickness and ball handling abilities. Although used as a spot player, Driesell will call on him more this year to direct the up-court play or to be certain of having a sure ballhandler in the game. Shrader, an all-league guard for Great Valley High School, Malvern, Pa., also was a straight "A" student at Great Valley. He became the first player in the history of the school to score over 1,000 points with his 1,226 in three years as a starter. He averaged 12 points a game as a sophomore, 21 as a junior and 20 his senior year. He also averaged 6 assists a game as a junior and 7 his senior year. For his academic achievements at Great Valley, he was a member of the National Honor Society and was a finalist for a National Merit Scholarship. He was named as the senior class "outstanding Student-Athlete." Shrader is in the Pre-Med school at the University. His father, Bill, was a teammate of Driesell's at Duke. His younger brother Mark was an undergraduate teammate Eric's senior year at Great Valley.

"LEFTY" FINDS A PAIR FROM STUDENT BODY

Bob Hart

Bruce Petersen

Every year Coach Driesell holds tryouts for possible varsity candidates from the student body. This season, these "walk-ons" were added to the Maryland Varsity basketball team. They, as non-scholarship members of the team, were selected from among the 100 or more from the student body who participated in the annual tryout camp.

Religious Life

University of Maryland Chapel

There are over 1,200 churches of over 70 different denominations in the area surrounding the University of Maryland. The National Capital Area is the site of more than 20 national churches including the National Baptist Memorial Church, the Lutheran Peace Memorial Church and the National Cathedral. The Washington Episcopal Cathedral, the newly-constructed Mormon Temple (largest Mormon Temple in the world), the National Methodist Church and the National Presbyterian Church are also located in the area.

Closer to campus, the University offers the Hillel House for Jewish students and the Newman Center for Catholic students. Our non-denominational University Chapel is one of the beauty spots on campus and offers a place to worship regardless of religious beliefs.

FOR NBC-TV'S NATIONAL NETWORK FROM COLE FIELD HOUSE

TERPS TO BE HEARD COAST TO COAST

The Mutual Broadcasting Company has selected four Terrapin games for their "Game of the Week" national broadcast this season.

The four games to be heard coast to coast are:

Maryland	vs.	North Carolina at Chapel Hill, N.C.	January	21
		Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind.	January	29
		Nevada/Las Vegas at College Park, Md.	February	4
		Clemson at Clemson, S.C.	February	11

Mutual, which originated the now popular Monday night pro football network broadcast, selected 20 college basketball games for their "Game of the Week" package. This is the first time a radio network will broadcast college basketball on a national basis.

Mutual play by play will be handled by Tony Roberts

MARYLAND PRESS COVERAGE

University of Maryland athletes receive the best press coverage in the nation. The Terrapins are in a unique situation located just a few miles from the nation's capital and two of the best known newspapers in the nation, the Washington Post and the Star-News, while just a few miles to the north they have another major metropolitan area with the Baltimore Sunpapers and the News American.

In addition there are 10 other daily papers publishing around the state and some of the finest weekly papers in the country.

Radio 65 WMUC

Thus the Terrapins have 15 daily papers covering their athletic activities including five major metropolitan daily publications.

The 15 daily papers alone have a circulation of two million with the Washington Post alone reaching nearly 700,000 homes every Sunday and the Star-News nearly half-a-million more.

The Post, Star News and Sunpapers are also known throughout the nation and are available on Newsstands in every major metropolitan area in the country.

There are also 71 weekly newspapers published in the State of Maryland with circulation running as high as the 65,000 of the Montgomery and Prince George's Sentinel.

The National Observer with over a half million circulation is published in nearby Silver Spring, Maryland and also follows the Terps fortunes.

News American

Both Wire services staff the Terrapin games with Regional Sports Editors Gordon Beard of Associated Press and Tom Whitfield of the Washington Bureau of United Press International.

With Washington, D.C. the News Capital of the World every major publication and news outlet has a staff in Washington giving Maryland national coverage of all major events.

Time Magagine, Sports Illustrated, Peoples Magazine, the Sporting News and many other national publications have carried major feature articles on the Terps in recent years.

The Afro-American publishes its National Edition in Baltimore along with local editions for Baltimore and Washington. The Baltimore edition has a circulation of over 32,000 with another 34,000 printed for Washington.

DRIESELL'S AWARDS BANQUETS ATTRACT

COACH DRIESELL — 1970

Following his first year, "Lefty" handled the podium chores himself. Honored was assistant coach Joe Harrington. Seated is Mal Campbell, who handles the WMAL Radio broadcasts of all Maryland games and has served as Master of Ceremonies at all 8 Awards Banquets.

JESSE OWENS — 1971

Lefty and the University were acclaimed world wide when 1936 Olympic Gold Winner sprinter-jumper Jesse Owens honored the team as guest speaker. Owens chats with Jim O'Brien, Tom McMillen, and Barry Yates.

RED AUERBACH — 1972

To honor the 1971-72 NIT Maryland Championship team, Driesell lured the famous Coach and General Manager of the World Champion Boston Celtics, Red Auerbach, to College Park. Now President of the Celtics, Auerbach's professional coaching record and numerous World Championships still ranks as the best in the history of the NBA. The Terps defeated Niagara, 100-69 for their first ever NIT title.

ADOLPH RUPP — 1973

The "Master" of all college coaches, Kentucky's "The Barron" — Mr. Rupp was Lefty's guest for the 1972-73 Terrapin team. The Terps had won the ACC championship and went on to play in the finals of the Eastern Regionals.

With Rupp are Tom Young, former star guard at the University and now Head Coach at Rutgers, Driesell, Len Elmore, Tom McMillen and Jim O'Brien.

NATION'S TOP GUEST SPEAKERS

BILL RUSSELL — 1974

The greatest center ever to play in the NBA, perennial all-pro of the Boston Celtics Bill Russell said it was a great honor and privilege to be asked by Lefty to be the honored guest at the Terps' awards banquet. Russell appears to be having a good time also as he joins Terrapin All-Americans Len Elmore and Tom McMillen.

JOHN WOODEN — 1975

"Lefty" landed the much sought after NCAA National Champion Coach John Wooden for the Maryland team of the 1974-75 season. Wooden had just won his ninth national championship crown for the UCLA Bruins and then announced his retirement as Coach of the Bruins. Driesell's team had won the first round of the NCAA tournament over Creighton at Lubbock, Texas and played in the finals of the Midwest Regionals at Las Cruces, New Mexico.

MUHAMMED ALI — 1976

They said it couldn't be done — but "Lefty" did it. None other than World heavyweight boxing champion Muhammed Ali delivered a not-to-be forgotten message to this team. The most memorable evening was a "smashing" success. Ali takes time out to chat with John Boyle, John Lucas, Mo Howard and a happy and excited "little friend."

AL McGUIRE — 1977

Another unbelievable catch by "Lefty" as guest speaker was Al McGuire. He had just taken his Marquette University Warriors to the NCAA Championships in Atlanta. The popular and volatile McGuire, for years, has been one of the nation's most sought after speakers. Coach Driesell, admirably, looks on as he enjoys McGuire's message to the team. Like Wooden, he retired from coaching after Marquette won the NCAA crown.

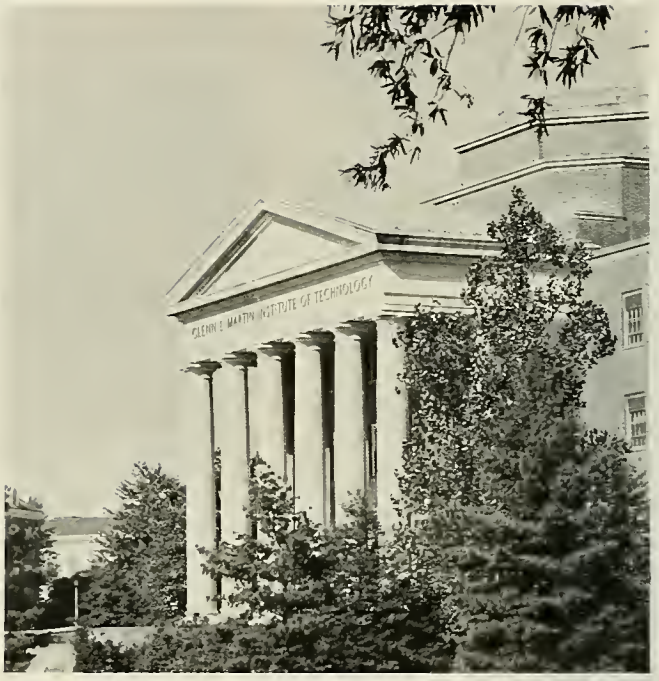
The University of Maryland



The University of Maryland is a land-grant institution dedicated to the goal of providing quality education for the people of the State of Maryland and the entire nation. Comprised of five separate campuses located throughout the state, the University system has an enrollment of over 75,000 students.

With an enrollment of 29,112 undergraduate students and 7,649 graduate students, the College Park Campus is the largest of the Maryland University system. Founded in 1859 as the Maryland Agricultural College, the school has grown until today it ranks as one of the largest in the nation.

The College Park Campus offers baccalaureate degrees in over 100 fields and offers 70 post-graduate level fields of study. Degrees are confirmed by five divisions. They are Arts and Humanities, Behavioral and Social Sciences, Human and Community Resources, Life Science and Agriculture as well as Mathematical, Physical and Engineering Sciences.

The McKeldin Library is the general library of the University containing reference works, periodicals, circulating books and other material in all fields of research and instruction. Branch libraries include the Undergraduate Library completed in 1972, seats over 4,000 readers and shelves up to 200,000 volumes. The McKeldin Library mainly supports the graduate and research programs of the University but is opened to all undergraduate students.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES IN COLE FIELD HOUSE

Research is an important part of the University of Maryland and it ranks as one of the finest research centers in the country. Over $37 million was spent on research projects in 1975-76 and a total of $40 million is being spent during the current academic year. Among the facilities available to the Maryland students are the Institute of Child Study, the National Resources Institute, the Van de Graaff accelerators, a five story computer building, a nuclear reactor, and collaborative arrangements with many of the nearby government installations. The University houses the world's largest sectored isochronous Cyclotron and owns the world's longest radio telescope, located at Clark Lake, Calif. Recently the University developed a Center for Environmental and Estuarine studies near Cambridge, Md. The Center deals with several projects relating to the ecological problems of the Chesapeake Bay and surrounding marshland. A sister center was set up in Frostburg, Md., the Appalachian Environmental Laboratory, to study Maryland's forest and wildlife resources.

Another part of the University of Maryland, dedicated to the training of professionals in the fields of medicine, law and Community Planning, is the University's Baltimore City Campus. One of the oldest and largest centers of professional and graduate education, the Baltimore Campus prepares qualified students for careers in dentistry, nursing, pharmacy, law, medicine and social and community work. A 924-bed University Hospital serves both the community and the state.

With alumni from every state in the Union and many foreign countries, the University of Maryland takes pride in being one of the country's finest institutions of higher learning.

DR. WILSON H. ELKINS

PRESIDENT
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

Wilson H. Elkins, the twenty-first president of the University of Maryland, has been the major motivating force in the growth of the University for the past 22 years.

In 1954, his first year as president, Dr. Elkins was responsible for an institution that enrolled 8,600 students and operated on a $23 million budget. This fall, the University — composed of five campuses — is providing an education for more than 77,000 on a total budget of $316,880,830.

Despite the large increases in student enrollment, academic standards have been consistently strengthened during the Elkins administration as departments and programs throughout the system have gained national attention.

Dr. Elkins received his undergraduate and graduate degrees at the University of Texas where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He attended Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar, earning a B.Litt. and Ph.D. degrees.

The chief executive officer of the Board of Regents began his professional career as a history instructor. He became president of San Angelo Junior College and served in the same role at Texas Western College (now the University of Texas at El Paso) before accepting the leadership role at the University of Maryland.

Long a sports enthusiast, Dr. Elkins is an avid golfer who won eight varsity letters in football, basketball, and track while attending the University of Texas. He was named to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1963 and was the recipient of the Distinguished Alumnus Award from his alma mater in 1972.

Dr. Elkins is a member of several educational organizations including the Southern Regional Education Board and has served as president of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges, the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and the Southern University Conference.

DR. ROBERT L. GLUCKSTERN

CHANCELLOR
COLLEGE PARK CAMPUS

Robert L. Gluckstern begins his second year as Chancellor of the eighth largest campus in the nation with a belief that College Park occupies a pivotal place in the State with a responsibility to provide vigorous and visible programs in scholarship, research and public service.

Last May he told the Faculty Assembly that universities have spent too much of the past six years responding to crises such as student protests and national conflicts. "It is time," he said, "to reemphasize standards of performance, the role of the faculty and the pursuit of scholarship."

Educated at the City College of New York (Electrical Engineering) and MIT (Ph.D. in Physics) Dr. Gluckstern taught at Yale University for fourteen years. In 1964 he joined the faculty at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst as professor and chairman of the physics and astronomy department. Under his leadership, the department grew from 14 to 52 faculty members and increased federal support from $30,000 to $950,000 a year.

He became associate provost of the University of Massachusetts in 1969, vice chancellor for academic affairs and provost in 1970.

A member of the Terrapin Club, he is an avid fan and works out on the racquetball courts. He frequently reminds people that Maryland can be proud of its athletes who have combined varsity skills with excellent academic records.

Despite the pressures of administration, Dr. Gluckstern continues to be active in research and to teach at least one undergraduate physics course each semester.

Dr. Gluckstern, who is 51, was born in Atlantic City, New Jersey. He is married to the former Norma Block. The Glucksterns have three children.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

JAMES H. "JIM" KEHOE

When Jim Kehoe assumed the duties as Director of Athletics in 1969 he took over a program that was struggling with 12 varsity sports and failing to achieve the national acclaim the growing University deserved.

Today Kehoe administers a program that encompasses 21 varsity sports, is self supporting financially and nationally acclaimed.

His seven years as Terrapin AD have been exciting to say the least. The Terps have become National powers in basketball, football and lacrosse with one of the most successful athletic programs in the nation both artistically and financially.

Kehoe approached the job with the same fervor and determination he had devoted to his duties as a teacher and coach for 24 years. The combined record of basketball, football and lacrosse in 1968-69, the year prior to Kehoe's taking over, was 17-30. The past four years the same three teams recorded a cumulative 161-42-1. The football team has visited bowls in four consecutive years, the lacrosse team has been in the NCAA Championship Tournament all seven years the tournament has been held, winning a pair of national championships and finishing second three times and the basketball team has averaged 23 wins a season for the past six years. Kehoe hired all three coaches, Jerry Claiborne, "Lefty" Driesell and Bud Beardmore.

Since Kehoe took over he has added Fencing as one of the ACC sports for Men and assumed the responsibilities for eight Women's sports instituting a scholarship program for women equivalent to that of the men's non-revenue programs. He was one of the first Athletic Directors to assume any financial responsibilities for the Women's programs and now has a total commitment to making the Maryland Women's program one of the best in the nation.

Despite the added responsibilities and financial problems besetting intercollegiate athletics today Kehoe directs one of the few athletic programs in the nation that is not operating at a deficit.

Financial stability was the most immediate problem facing Kehoe when he took over and he could not entirely depend on improvement in the revenue producing sports to solve this nor could he wait for this improvement. He lured his former track teammate, Col. Tom Fields, into retirement from the Marine Corps to direct the Maryland Educational Foundation and instituted a drive to revamp the image of Maryland athletics.

Kehoe was also one of the first to recognize the need for a merchandising plan, to build a radio network, create community interest, obtain advertising revenue and take advantage of the advertising possibilities at a minimum cost. He created the position of Promotions Director and hired another former Maryland product Russ Potts to head the promotional program.

The Terps have improved every area of the athletic department. Facilities now include an artificial turf practice field, a new soccer field, improvements in Byrd Stadium and Cole Field House, a modern football facility and one of the finest indoor tracks in the nation.

The Terps annually host a National Invitational Indoor Track meet, have hosted the USA-Russian Track and Field Meet, numerous ACC Championships, NCAA Basketball Regionals and Finals, NCAA Wrestling Championships and other National and International events.

As Maryland Track Coach, Kehoe saw his teams capture the ACC Indoor and Outdoor Championships in all but one year of the ACC's existence. He won the first and last 14 in each and in addition captured eight cross-country titles including his last six as a coach.

After taking over as track and cross-country coach in 1946 his teams won a total of 48 Southern Conference and ACC team titles. In dual meet competition his teams were undefeated for his last nine years and the track team had a winning streak of 27 and the cross country team 29 at his retirement. His track teams won IC4A titles in 1965, 1966 and 1969 to claim Eastern supremacy.

A native of Bel Air, Maryland, where he starred in several sports, Kehoe entered Maryland in 1936 and concentrated on track and cross-country. He lettered in all three of his varsity seasons, was undefeated in dual meet competition and won several Southern Conference titles in indoor and outdoor competition. He also established indoor and outdoor records in the 880 and two mile runs.

While a student at Maryland he was president of the Men's league, and a member of Omicron Delta Kappa National Honorary Fraternity.

In addition to coaching at Maryland he served as an Associate Professor of Physical Education and Director of Intramural Athletics. He holds an Honorary Doctor's degree from Steed College in Tennessee.

During World War II he served as an officer with the 81st Infantry Division in the Pacific, rising from the rank of Private to Lt. Colonel upon retirement. He participated in the Philippine Islands and Central Pacific Campaigns and was awarded the Bronze Star, American Service Medal, Asiatic Pacific Medal, Victory Medal and Philippine Liberation Medal.

Kehoe is married to the former Barbara Riggs England, a 1943 Maryland graduate. The Kehoes have four children, daughters Courtney Ann, Barbara Sue and Mary Lou and a son Jim. All four are Maryland alumni.

COL. TOM FIELDS

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR MARYLAND EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

When Jim Kehoe assumed the duties as Director of Athletics at the University of Maryland, financial stability was a prime concern and absolute necessity to achieve the goals he set for Maryland athletics.

Financial stability has been achieved but it is a continuing battle to stay ahead of rising costs.

One of Kehoe's first decisions involved the expansion of the Terrapin Club and Maryland Education Foundation with the goal of eventually assuming responsibility for all scholarship aid to Maryland athletes.

In order to achieve this, Kehoe lured Col. Fields into retirement from the Marine Corps and Fields has contributed greatly to the success of the overall athletic program.

When Fields returned to Maryland contributions to the Maryland Educational Foundation were minimal. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1970 the contributions totaled approximately $30,000.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1977 contributions totaled $712,000 up from the $631,000 the previous year.

During the past year the Terrapin Club renewed 96 percent of their contributors and the membership now stands at 1,700, quite a jump from the 132 original members.

Of the 1,700 members, 16 are life members ($10,000 contribution), 276 are Diamondback members ($1,000 annual contributions) and 602 are Gold members ($500 annual contribution).

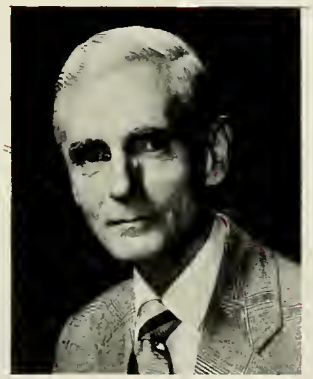
The contributions have not only enabled the University's self-sustaining program to remain just above the break even point but enabled the Terrapins to regain their National prestige in just about every sport. The University has also instituted a scholarship program for women athletes on a par with the program of the men's non-revenue sports.

Fields, a former Maryland All-American distance runner and teammate of Kehoe's took over his duties at Maryland in 1970 and his success has followed the pattern of his life.

His service to his country followed the same pattern he established as a track star for the Terrapins and recently as a University Administrator.

During World War II he served in combat on Guadalcanal, Vella Lavella, Bouganville and Iwo Jima. He also served in Korea and Vietnam and at the time of his retirement from the Corps he was the Deputy Director of Information Headquarters Marine Corps.

Colonel Fields and his wife, the former Patricia T. Hansel have four children Karen and Lori and Thomas M. Jr. and David.



DR. CHARLES A. TAFF
Chairman The Athletic Council

Dr. Charles A. Taff, Professor of Transportation, College of Business and Management replaced Dr. John Faber as Chairman of the Athletic Council this past summer. Dr. Taff served as chairman of the Department of Business Administration from 1962 to 1973 and has taught at Maryland since 1949.

He is a graduate of Iowa where he also received his M.A. in 1941. After joining the faculty at Maryland he earned his Ph.D. in Transportation Economics in 1952. He has served on the athletic council for several years.

Many of his significant contributions in transportation and physical distribution have been used in the formulation of transportation policy by the federal government, and the managerial aspects of his research have been utilized by shippers, the transportation industry, and corporate management. He is the author of four books, two of which are in the fifth editions, a co-authored book in the third edition, and is the Editor of the Transportation Journal, a professional publication that is published quarterly.

ALFRED J. HANLON

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Alfred J. Hanlon is concerned primarily with scheduling, team travel, personnel policies and general office administration. He has been with the Athletic Department since 1969, when he retired from the U.S. Air Force with the rank of colonel after directing the Maryland AFROTC program for two years.

A rated command pilot, Hanlon commanded a heavy bomber squadron in England and North Africa during World War II. He has served in a wide variety of command and staff positions since that time. His military decorations include the Legion of Merit, the Air Medal with two oak leaf clusters, the Air Force Commendation Medal and the Presidential Unit Citation Badge.

Hanlon is a native of Boston and a 1939 graduate of Harvard University, where he was a varsity letterman in track. He is married to the former Barbara Foster of Boston, and they have three grown children, Christopher, Brenda and Mark.

RUSS POTTS

Assistant Athletic Director for Advertising and Promotions

Maryland football and basketball ranks among the leaders in television and radio coverage for the entire country. Much of this is due to the efforts of Russ Potts, Assistant Athletic Director for Advertising and Promotions.

The 38 year old Potts came to Maryland in 1970 when the Terps claimed only one radio station on the network. Since then the coverage has grown to over 50 stations in a five state area.

This year's basketball television coverage will see the Terrapins on TV 18 times in both Baltimore and Washington.

Russ' responsibilities include all advertising sales for the scoreboard, printed program and various radio and television packages. He is also responsible for all radio and TV negotiations as well as ticket promotions.

The Terrapin football and basketball printed programs are the nation's largest and the sales work of the Virginia native resulted in the modern scoreboards and magic message system in Byrd Stadium and Cole Field House.

Potts is a 1964 graduate of the University of Maryland where he received a B.S. Degree in Journalism. As an undergraduate, he was elected president of Sigma Delta Chi Journalism Fraternity and Phi Delta Theta Social Fraternity. In 1966, he was selected to the edition of "Outstanding Young Men in America."

Russ is married to the former Emily Ann Strite of Martinsburg, W. Va. They are the parents of three daughters: Kristi (9), Katie (6) and Kelly (3).

DAN LOVETT THE SPORT

A winning combination in sports is experience, skill and style. That's the same combination that makes News Seven's Dan Lovett a winner in sports reporting. 20 years in the business of sports have given Dan an appreciation for the plays and players behind the scores. He gets to the point of action with a knack for knowing the questions to ask and delivers the sports with a style that's upbeat and informative. That's Dan Lovett — The Sports weeknights at 6 and 11 on News Seven.
